

2021 CONFERENCE ON CHILD WELFARE AND THE COURTS

A NEW WAY FORWARD

September 22-24, 2021
Wilderness Resort, Wisconsin Dells

The Children's Court Improvement Program (CCIP) and the Department of Children and Families (DCF) invite you to mark your calendar for this exciting event that will be focused on policy initiatives, legislative changes, and promising strategies in child welfare and juvenile justice at the local, state, and national level.

Participants are encouraged to attend as a multidisciplinary team, which would include: judicial officers, attorneys (prosecutors, adversary counsel, guardians ad litem), and child welfare directors and supervisors. Each county and tribe will have time to develop strategies to implement in their community.

There is no registration fee to attend. Please note: This event may be held virtually based on public health considerations.

Presentations will include:

- Family First Prevention Services Act
- Parental Engagement
- Addressing Systemic Disparity
- Innovative Practices
- Unconscious Bias
- Pre-Petition Representation

and more.

Workshops will be organized by practice area:

Conference: Sept. 22-23
Optional Seminars: Sept. 24

Registration Opens in June

Questions? Please contact Justin.Wolff@wicourts.gov

